

Valentines Crushed: Childrens First Chapter Book

Won Readers Favorite Five Star Award
Abbie is in 4th grade and she is moving to a new town before Valentines Day. She is scared that no one will know who she is and that she will not get a Valentine from anyone. Her sister Shelby is in 2nd grade and tries her best to reassure Abbie that everything is going to be ok. Abbie is so scared to start her new school, but she is so glad to have her sister Shelby. They will be attending the same school. Read on to find out how Abbie deals with starting a new school. This book is perfect for any child that is scared about moving to a new school. It will reassure them that moving to a new school may not be as bad as they think it will be. It has some beautiful color illustrations inside to help children get a visual of what is going on in the story and to be able to visualize what the characters would look like if it were real life. It is also easy to read for those children that are in grades third through fifth that are looking to read their first chapter book.
