

Enchanted Fairyland: A Sphinx and Trevi Adventure (Sphinx and Trevi Adventures)

ENCHANTED FAIRYLAND is a magical adventure story about the brother and sister traveling team of Sphinx and Trevi Monje.

Sphinx and Trevi's archeologist father and history professor mother spend as much time with their offspring as they can. But when their work demands their full attention, the Monje family calls on Marseille, wise companion and caretaker to the children. In this adventure, Sphinx and Trevi are accompanied by Marseille on a glorious summer journey to Ireland. The trip stimulates Trevi's imagination as they explore the beautiful but harsh Irish countryside. When Trevi drifts off to sleep over a favorite storybook about fairies, she is confronted with alarming images of a young boy urgently warning her of something. Confused and distraught by her dreams, she shares them with her companions. Although dismissed as childish, she intuitively feels that they must have meaning. The threesome ventures out into the ancient woods and they soon discover whether or not Trevi's instincts were right. Suddenly their modern lives come face to face with a new and unexpected world they never could have anticipated. The story's focus on friendship, the overwhelming impulse to protect those we care for, and our need for dreams and magic help bring alive the story of this brother-sister team who may bicker and disagree, but whose mutual love and devotion never waver.
