

Bill the Bat Baby Sits Bella

-- Kirkus Reviews calls Bill the Bat Babysits Bella [a] sweet book celebrating brother-sister bonds. Bill is back, and its time for him to watch his little sister Bella for a week while their parents are away. While Bill makes his late, frantic trip to her house, Bella waits with adoring eyes and a long list of games and activities. The brother and sister do every single one and live it up all week long with pizza and treats and trips to the zoo. ... [T]he kid listening is probably thinking, I wish I had a big brother like Bill. ... [The] illustrations are rich with color and detail and full of little quirks to discuss. ( ... Why does Bill have a little broadcast speaker on his goggles when the other bats dont? Why would bats wear goggles at all? ...) Curious kids will especially enjoy the bedtime-extending lists of bat facts at the beginning and end of the book, all of which go beyond the usual bats arent blind. -- Kirkus Reviews A fun story for children 0 to 10.
